Herbert Brenon's "Sorrell and Son" Comes to the Torrance Theatre

H.B. WARNER and MICKEY M'BAN
IN "SORRELL AND SON"

Father-and-son love is the theme of "Sorrell and Son," Herbert Brenon's production of Warwick Deeping's best-selling novel, made into a United Artists Picture, and offered at the Torrance theatre next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. H. B. Warner appears as Stephen Sorrell, and Mickey M'Ban as Nils Aather, respectively, the child Kit and the matured Kit Sorrell. The notable cast includes Anna Q. Nilsson as Dora Sorrell; Carmel Myers as Florence Palfrey; Norman Trevor as Thomas Roland; Alice Joyce as Fanny Garland; Mary Nolan as Molly Roland; and Louis Wolheim as Sergeant Buck. Much of "Sorrell and Son" was filmed in England and with the aid of the author, Warwick Deeping. All of the film "Sorrell and Son" is faithful to the spirit and letter of Warwick Deeping's book, and the ending of the film is that of the book. Herbert Brenon, who made "Peter Pan" and "Beau Geste" says that "Sorrell and Son" is his best motion picture. A father himself, Mr. Brenon believes the story of "Sorrell and Son" is that of any father and any son, and that the appeal of the film as entertainment is supplemented by its spiritual effect on men and women who view it. The story of "Sorrell and Son" is that of a British war veteran whose wife deserts him and his six-year-old son. The veteran, Captain Stephen Sorrell, M. C., thereafter struggles against ingratitude, poverty, vice and physical exhaustion to rear and educate his beloved son, in whom he is ultimately well pleased. Interwoven with the story of father-and-son devotion are the sub-plots of Stephen Sorrell's friendship with Fanny Garland; Kit Sorrell's love for Molly Roland; Roland's kindness for Stephen Sorrell; Sergeant Buck's enmity for Sorrell; Florence Palfrey's scorn of her drunken husband and angry passion for Captain Sorrell; and Dora Sorrell's bitter struggle to win from her husband the love of their son, Kit. Manager Brandt of the Torrance Theatre said that in presenting "Sorrell and Son" to his patrons at popular prices he felt he was announcing presentation at his theatre of one of the five greatest motion pictures ever made.

Dixie Quartet Will Sing Here

Old Plantation Melodies at
H. S. Auditorium Next
Wednesday

The Dixie Jubilee Quartette will appear at the Torrance High School Auditorium next Wednesday, April 11 at 11:15 a. m. The public is urged to attend the concert, which will be given under the auspices of the student body. Admission is 25 cents for adults and 15c for students.

The quartette makes a feature of plantation melodies.

An advance notice reads as follows: "There is always something about the music of colored singers and players which touches a responsive chord in the heart of every listener. They sing the old folk songs of the South in their own inimitable way. There is nothing so full of genuine sweetness, so full of melody, as these old negro songs and it takes the real negro to sing them as they should be sung. The program of the Dixie Jubilee Quartet includes a goodly number of these plantation melodies for which their voices are so peculiarly adapted. However, while the folk-lore songs are favored the program is interspersed with many humorous and popular selections, as well as attractive features. This combination together with a very fine strain of light comedy makes a happy combination.

The versatility of the company makes an intensely interesting and varied program possible. There is not a dull moment anywhere. The personnel includes a brilliant pianist whose repertoire ranges from the gems of grand opera down to modern popular numbers. Frequent reference is made by the press to Mr. Stewart as "The Black Tunderwald." An interesting feature is a group of readings in which Mr. Shupe scores. Mr. Reeves is a splendid tenor soloist and adds variety with his saxophone solos. Everyone likes to hear a bass sing down in the depths and Mr. Campbell makes the rest of the notes with ease, his broad and genial smile increasing with every lower tone."

Allen H. Paull, Dodge Brothers dealer, will move into his new building at 1420 Cabrillo this week. The formal opening will be announced later.

Mr. Glen Jackson, owner of two large department stores in Flint, Michigan, visited Torrance Tuesday. He was impressed with the beauty of "the modern industrial city" and commented at length on the fact that in California at least industrial towns may be beautiful as well as utilitarian.

Misses Ruth and Helma Greenlund were entertained in Pasadena Sunday.

Mrs. F. M. Freeman spent Thursday in Long Beach.

Mr. John Dan Adel of Los Angeles is spending spring vacation with his grandmother, Mrs. E. J. Muir.

New Organ Installed for N. V. A., April 8

The Twelfth Annual National Vaudeville Artists Week which starts at the Orpheum Sunday matinee, April 8 will be a gala affair with special features, a superb bill of artists all of the interesting events N. V. A. week brings each year. By popular demand Ole Olsen and Chic Johnson with their "Merry Mad Minutes of Monday Business" will remain for a second and final week to spread fun and frolic throughout the entire bill. Other special features which will make N. V. A. week one to be remembered will be May Wirth, the pretty little idol of the circus, with "Phil" the riding comedian, in a pretentious offering which brings a complete circus ring to the stage with horses, clowns and all the necessary parts; Venita Gould, the distinguished American artist, will present "Impressions"; Countess Sonia, the lovely Russian dancer, will appear in a lavishly staged revue called "Revue Intimate"; Corinne Tilton, "The Chatter-Box Girl"; Marty May and Wallace in "Just Suppose"; Brown and LaVelle and Alberta Lee will complete the new vaudeville bill.

Other special features of interest for N. V. A. week will be the inauguration of the mighty new Wurlitzer organ with Alkon at the console, and an opportunity for every lady attending the matinee to receive a series of free lessons in bridge under the famous Wilbur C. Whitehead, who will shortly come to the Ambassador Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Diehm and friends drove to Topanga Canyon Sunday for a picnic in the open.

This Eastern manufacturer of toilet soaps was spending a few days in Idaho 7 years ago and while we were fitting his daughter and family with shoes, this man was looking over goods on display in the store. He told us about his line and the manufacture of his products. While this man is worth millions he explained the details as only a successful man can and with the good grace that goes with it. As we were checking over last Monday evening any places or bets we might have overlooked where we could save our trade money, his conversation came back to us. Tuesday we visited one of his branch factories. We bought several thousand cakes his toilet soaps to be sold at cut prices. This lot will be on display Saturday, subject to delivery. PRICES WILL BE A KNOCKOUT AS USUAL.

SAVE THE JOBBERS PROFITS
When shoes were plentiful and cheap some of the retailers used to be able to cull over the different lots of Sample Shoes and pick a lot and leave a lot. Today the shoe is on the other foot. The buyer of footwear who shoots square all the time, who will accept any amount from one to five hundred cases of shoes anytime, gets the first choice. We are checking in 8 cases of Endicott, Johnson Corporation sample shoes today. Save 30% with us. Save 50c to $5.00 on shoes.
